Decorate with grated chocolate, flakes, cream or anything you like.

Emotional reasons behind this recipe:

This has been given to many clients who fear that their husband's attention in the relationship is waning.

Try to arrange circumstances where the children are out of the home so that you can fully concentrate on your husband. When he comes home from work greet him in an affectionate way and try to create a romantic atmosphere in the home.

After the meal he will not be able to resist your chocolate mousse. It certainly has worked for a number of clients!

Lloyd Platt & Company cannot take responsibility for the success of these recipes!
